

Nakamoto Productions VO Workshop Presents: SEPTEMBER 2010 VO SCHEDULE

Our next VO OPEN MIC NIGHT will be Wednesday, Sept. 15th from 7-9pm at Weston House Recording, 955 Venture Ct, Sacramento, 95825.
And of course, as always: IT'S FREE!

The Audacity Audition Workshop!

- Learn how to record/edit/make .mp3 files
- Follow the process from start to finish of an actual Voice123 audition: from filling out the forms; recording and editing your voice; uploading your voice demo and audition; sending out the finished .mp3 file back to Voice123.
- This workshop will be taught by Mike Miro – he has mastered the Audacity audition process for Voice123 and Voices.com.

When: Saturday September 18th, 10am-1pm
Where: Weston House Recording, 955 Venture Ct. Sacto.95825
Tuition: $95 credit card in advance, or cash or check at the door.
Reservations: Raynakamoto@att.net
or the VO Message line: 916-447-6435

THE BACK TO BASICS WORKSHOP

This workshop will cover the basics of preparing for your sessions that Shannon and I have taken for granted as we have been through the process countless times throughout our lives. But for you the student, this may be unfamiliar and intimidating territory. With that in mind, this workshop is for both the entry level and intermediate students of VO to give you the knowledge, confidence and preparation to perform at your peak when you arrive at your VO sessions.

You will learn:

- VO Session-- from start to finish; Warming up those chops! Marking Copy—your personal GPS; Director “industry buzz words”; Processing to enhance your voice; Send my voice track in what format? Which microphone is best for you? “Working the Mic” -- increase depth and resonance; Who the heck is everyone in the control room? What’s a phone patch? Who and how do I bill? Talent Agency VS Casting Services; Non-Union VS Union; Voice123 VS Voices.com. Where do I send my demo? Who needs a website? Behind the Mic Time

WHEN: Saturday, September 25th, 10am–1pm

LEVEL: Beginning/Intermediate

WHERE: Weston House, 955 Venture Ct. Sacto. 95825

TUITION: Still only $95.00! Credit card in advance, cash or check at the door.
